

BAY AREA LATIN AMERICA FORUM • SPRING 2009

Lowell Bergman

Graduate School of Journalism, UC Berkeley
Producer/Correspondent, "Frontline" (PBS)

Mexico: Crimes at the Border

Monday, February 2, 12:00 – 1:15 pm

Alberto Diaz-Cayeros

International Relations and Pacific Studies
Director, Center for U.S.–Mexico Studies, UC San Diego

Indian Identity, Poverty and Colonial Development in Mexico

Monday, February 9, 12:00 – 1:15 pm

Bryan S. Graham

Economics, UC Berkeley

Banana Company Railroads and the Economic Development of Honduras

Monday, February 23, 12:00 – 1:15 pm

Lisa García Bedolla

Social and Cultural Studies, Graduate School of Education, UC Berkeley

Why U.S. Foreign Policy Matters: Latino Migration and Political Adaptation in the United States

Monday, March 2, 12:00 – 1:15 pm

Jorge Bravo

Political Science, UCLA

The Political Economy of U.S.–Mexico Migration: A View From the Source Country

Monday, March 9, 12:00 – 1:15 pm

Beatriz Magaloni

Political Science, Stanford University

Assessing the Political Returns of Social Spending Strategies: Mexico 1988–2006

Monday, March 16, 12:00 – 1:15 pm

For event locations, please see the CLAS website at clas.berkeley.edu.

CENTER FOR LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES • UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY

CLAS.BERKELEY.EDU

San Francisco skyline. Photo by John Curley.