FILM SCREENING

Which Way Home

Directed by Rebecca Cammisa (United States, 2009)

The Oscar-nominated documentary “Which Way Home” follows child migrants as they journey through Mexico to the United States on a freight train they call “The Beast,” recording the heartbreaking naïveté of children too young to comprehend the evils that lie in their path. 90 minutes. English and Spanish with English subtitles.

“Tremendous, eye-opening filmmaking...” —Erik Price, Esquire
